

Clifton Hill Alumni hold reunion

5-29-2003 - SALISBURY PRESS SPECTATOR

50-YEAR GRADUATES of Clifton Hill High School present for this year's reunion were (from left) Donna Sue Leathers Davidson of Moberly and Wilma Fox Morgan of Huntsville.

THE EARLIEST CLASS represented at the Clifton Hill School Reunion was 1928 when Oreta Christy Clemens received her diploma.

Decorations and the program were in a patriotic theme for the annual Clifton Hill School Reunion which was held on Sunday at the Westran Middle School in Clifton Hill. There were 75 persons present for the dinner with the meal prayer given by Jimmie Patton of Clark. He honored veterans present by reading "This Raggedy Old Flag," followed by the pledge of allegiance and the singing of "America the Beautiful," accompanied by Dorothy Stottlemeyer Wilson of Moberly.

Betty Stottlemeyer Huntsman of Moberly led a roll call through the years with responses from the graduates. The earliest female graduate was Oreta Clemens of Huntsville, and the oldest male graduate was George Hill of Clifton Hill.

Donna Leathers Davidson of Moberly and Wilma Fox Morgan of Huntsville represented the 50 year graduates.

A gift was presented to Raymond Meyers of Tucson, Arizona who traveled the greatest distance to attend and recognition was also given to Gene and Sally Henderson of Mesa, Arizona.

Kent Mayo of Moberly received a gift as the graduate who had served the longest period in military service.

Dorothy Bagby of Huntsville received a gift for being the oldest teacher present.

Vice President Ruth Fotovitch of Clifton Hill presented the gifts and the honorees were congratulated by all attending.

OFFICERS of the Clifton Hill Reunion led a program following the dinner on Sunday. Shown reading a selection entitled "The Raggedy Old Flag" is Jimmie Patton, president. Seated from left are Betty Stottlemeyer Huntsman, secretary-treasurer; and Ruth Rodgers Fotovich, vice president.

Mary Evelyn Christy Minor of Moberly led a memorial service for alumni who had died the past year. They were Charles Baker, Kathryn Fitzwater Lewellyn, Helen Mayo, Ruby Rudkin, Milton Gooch, Robert Burg, and teacher, Martha Fellows Van Pelt. A donation was received by Georgia Burg, in memory of her husband.

The present officers were retained for next year and will be Jimmie Patton, president; Ruth Fotovitch, vice president; and Betty Huntsman, secretary and treasurer.

A $200.00 gift will be given to the Westran Middle School. The group voted to have a catered meal at the next gathering on May 23, 2004.

Door prize winners were Tom Rodgers of Holden and Beth Brown of Moberly.

President Patton gave a reading "The History of Our Liberty Bell."

The closing prayer was given by Mrs. Fotovitch followed by singing of "Auld Lang Syne," accompanied by Mrs. Wilson.
